“ Sarah,

I want to say how much I admire and love you! You became the best mother and the strongest woman God knew you would be. I'm so sorry you lost your precious angel Kaden but take comfort in knowing that he is safe and at peace in our father's arms. We will see him again someday. So many of us were blessed through you and Kaden. Your unconditional love and his brave struggles brought us closer to God's grace and mercy. Not a day passes that won't I think of you and pray for your healing. I know God will bless you with so much more and even greater purposes in the years to come. Please know that you are so special and very much loved!

“ Sarah and Sandy,

It's been almost a month since little Kaden passed away and left us all to live on. I cannot imagine the great sorry and sadness you all feel. I only knew him for a short while and got to hold him and be with him. He was so precious and sweet beyond words. I loved the way his hair would stand up and make him even more adorable than usual. Don't you wish we all had explanations for such things as this? And yet we are left to carry on doing the best we can with the lives that have been given us. Sometimes it seems like such a long road and heavy burden to bear and every once in a while we get a glimpse of joy in the faces of the people we love -- those of us who are left to carry on. I know you both make Kaden very proud of you and I am so proud of your courage and strength and goodness. God bless you with comfort and may every day ease the pain of our loss. I love you, Aunt Nancy

“ All babies are precious angels and Kaden truly was. Kaden was a Warrior/Fighter but he had the most gentle soul and spirit. He touched the lives of so many people, the story of his struggle literally traveled the world. What a precious gift from God, I believe in my heart that Kaden was sent to us for a reason, to teach us something. I am still searching for answers, but Kaden taught us to love one another. This little angel brought so many people together to help him, but he was really helping us. He taught us patience, preserverance, determination, and to love one another for who we really are. To work together for the good of God, because through him all things are possible. Kaden had many struggles and difficulties but there were also good times and precious moments. The difficult times make the good ones even more special and dear to our heart. Kaden is in better hands now and I know he is watching over us all. I am honored to have been a part of his life. Until we meet again my KDOBUG I will do my best to make you proud of your Grammy.

Sarah, Ralph, you’re in my thoughts and prayers as, even in the midst of sorrow, you ponder the unequalled hope found in knowing Jesus. Kaden is home where God is watching over him. Stay strong. “ To bear a child and give birth to him is the greatest joy a woman could possibly be blessed with. To love that child so much and not even meet him for the first nine months that you are aware of his existence is nothing that any one could explain or even attempt to put into words. However, to lose a child is the greatest pain a woman could possibly suffer and again it is nothing that can be explained or put into words. I am so sorry for the pain that you and your family are going through and there is nothing that can be said to make it better. But please remember the joys that you had with Kaden in his short little life and know that you loved him with everything that you have inside of you and with that made his life a little bit more bearable.

So much love

“ You prophesied over your son's life and said that he would be a Preacher. Well, he WAS. Preachers touch hearts, bring people together in the name of Jesus, and cause people to believe in miracles and in God's eternal love for us. Kaden did all these things without uttering a word.

May the Lord comfort you and your family in this time of grief. Know that Kaden is rejoicing with the Lord and, in time, you will be able to do the same.

“ The first time I met Kaden, he found his own special place in my heart and there he still resides. I can say the same about His Mommy, I am grateful for the new friends I have found with Sandy and "The Benefitters". They would not have entered my life if not for Kaden. It was an honor to have been in his life to see the pure Love that shone from Sarah for her little Kaden. Sarah, you may not believe it today, but in time, the pain will pass, and the memories will live on, the tears will turn to smiles. Your little Angel is watching over you and will help his Mommy be whole again. My Love to you all.

“ Dear sweet Sarah,

I consider myself blessed to call you friend and to have met God's precious little gift to us all, Kaden.

In the difficult days ahead, please remember you are not defined by your past, you are prepared by your past. Every challenge you've been through, every adversity you've faced, God has deposited something on the inside of you. Your character was being developed, your strength was being increased. Your vision was being enlarged.

God will turn your test into a testimony!

*I love you!
God bless!*

“ My hearts aches:

If god brings you to it...he will bring you through it. Kaden's unbearable pain and misery throughout his short life is now no more. Although this gaping hole in our hearts will take time and patience to mend I smile knowing God is now taking care of him the way we could not on this earth. He is able to smile and laugh the way he was intended to. Sarah's amazing son has brought so many people together. This blessing we have all received will never die in our hearts. My love goes out to Sarah and her family.

May the lord bless you and keep you. May his face shine upon you and be gracious unto. May the lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.

“ My Dearest Sarah,

My prayers are with you and the family on a constant basis. I feel so blessed that I was able to love on that precious baby for such a long time at the Benefit. He touched my heart and everyone else's who looked into his beautiful eyes. God's plan for Kaden AND for YOU is much bigger than we can ever imagine and even in this darkest hour, we have to remember that we all belong to Him and that every second spent with Kaden was truly a Gift from God.

Only God knows the pain that you feel because he too lost his Son. He will comfort you, guide you and hold you in this darkness.

As I pray for you and for Kaden I do smile, because I know that in Heaven he is pain free, laughing, smiling and is in the arms of our Father. You will see him again and until then, he will live in all of our hearts forever.

“ Kaden, you brought so many people together. You taught us love, companionship and you brought many people to God seeking your well being. I am so happy that we didn't lose you on December 17. I got a chance to get to know and love you and I praise God for giving me the time I did get to spend with you. I have only held two babies in my life and you are the one I chose to hold. Sarah and Ralph, I am here if you need me.
