“ I call her mom because i decided i was an adult and should call her Karen. But she told me "you don't call me Karen! You call me mom!" So, i will miss mom very much! She was such a joy to be around and always had a smile! I loved shocking her! She never knew what to expect when i opened my mouth and it just cracked me up to look at her face when i said what ever it was that i had to say! I love you and will miss you always!

“ The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. Ps 34:18.

Karen will surely be missed by all. She touched so many lives. I will smile as I watch Brooke riding her tricycle knowing she bought it for her. A sweet memory of a loving grandmother.

“ My childhood memories of us at play and as well as those of her as a concerned and comforting young mother are many. May you feel the comfort from family members, classmates of hers from her days at Needville High School, neighbors, friends and all those who love and wish to share with you in this time of celebrating her life and the gifts she gave to all of us.
