“ This weekend I think I'll go down to Surfside and hang the long rods out off the bumper of the jeep and light a beach fire. You'll be with us all night as we haul in some bull reds and black tips and down a few brews. We'll play the Real Mckenzie's and the Misfits at full volume and wake up the spirits like days of old. We miss you brother but we will meet again one day-RIP to a brother and a legend

“ Keith being gone so young is so hard to comprehend. I never once met person that could be so easily liked by people that are so very different. What a special person. I have really thought about this quote a lot since he passed. I think it fits Keith well.

“[...]the only people for me are the mad ones, the ones who are mad to live, mad to talk, mad to be saved, desirous of everything at the same time, the ones who never yawn or say a commonplace thing, but burn, burn, burn like fabulous yellow roman candles exploding like spiders across the stars and in the middle you see the blue centerlight pop and everybody goes “Awww!”

— Jack Kerouac, On the Road

God bless And stay strong. People that burn so bright sometimes burn out quickly but the glow from their lives stays in the people they touched. I am a better person for having known Keith.

“ My heart breaks at the earthly loss of Keith who I have known since he was eight years old; he was so full of life. My heart also rejoices that Keith is in Heaven enjoying total peace and fellowship with Jesus and his friends and loved ones who were already there. Carol, Eddie and Ryan - I have you in my heart and prayers. Love, Fran
