“ I am sorry for your loss. When Jesus was here on earth, he cured and also resurrected many people back to life here on earth. Jesus did this to demonstrate what he will do on a much larger scale in the near future. At John chapter 5 verse 28 and 29 Jesus said, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear in voice and come out...."

“ I am sorry to read of your loss. Many have experienced the death of a loved. In God's word, at Revelation chapter 21 verse 4, it reads, "And he will wipe every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ *Martha, Wanda, Delores, Wilbur and Dennis:
We are so sorry for your loss. Kenny was such a sweet guy. He always had that great smile when you saw him. He will be missed by all who were lucky enough to call him a friend. But, remember that he is now pain free and with Jimmy and your Mom and Dad . We wish you God's peace.
Love you,
Nancy & Charles*

“ It's Wednesday night and I just read about Kenny. I just can't believe it. I saw him just a few weeeeks ago at Tommy Burnell's service and Kenny just glowed and kept smiling that great smile. His eyes were shone and we hugged and he seemed bright and hopeful. I'm so grateful for that brief encounter. Is there any gatherings, perhaps interment in Matagorda? I will try my best to attend the service. I am blessed to have had Kenny...and all of the Chambers family as early influences on my life.

“ Kenneth,
We all wish you didn't have to leave us so soon, but I think we all take comfort that mom, dad, and Jimmy were waiting there for you with open arms. Delores is now in Texas, and I wish I could have come too, but I know you'd understand. Tommorow is your send off from this world, and know you'll be on my thoughts and prayers. Your family and friends will always remember the good times, and I'll remember how you always made me smile and laugh. Until we meet again, take care and don't worry, I'll always take care of your little "sis".

Always, Your Bother in Law

“ Kenneth was one of the lights of my heart. I enjoyed our visits so much. I feel so blessed to have been there recently to spend time in the wonderful family unit that Kenneth completed when he came into our lives. I will miss his hearty greeting, looking up from the Hobby baggage claim to see him rushing over to meet me, watching him interact with Sharon, Granny and the girls, and best of all his hearty "I love you's". Larry is so sad that the two of them never got to do that fishing trip they talked about. Kenneth could be so funny and mischevious, he was so much fun to take pictures of cause you never knew what he was going to do next. Even though these past months must have been very scary for him he never lost that sense of humor and smile. He was always open hearted and loving. We are so sad at his passing, but know that now he is free. Wish we could be there with you. You have become our family. Cousins - Christy and Larry

“ Our family will miss Kenny so very much. No matter what Kenny's circumstances were he always had a smile on his face and a wonderful sense of humor. He made you wanted to be around him. Now we will cherish our wonderful memories and cling to our love of sweet Uncle Kenny until that bright tomorrow.

“ To Martha,Wanda,Delores,Wilbur and Dennis there are so many memories that we all shared as kids growing up that they are too many to mention, but with all my heart I am saddened by this loss of your family member and a friend to me, you are all in my thoughts and prayers at this time.
To Mrs. Chambers, his children and grandchildren, I know that this will be a hard time for all of you but as I read the out pouring of love for Kenneth in these statements you have many rocks to lean on in this time of grief and that just shows how much he was loved and will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you on this day.....

“ I didn't know Kenneth that well, but from spending the last couple of days with you all, I feel like I got to know him more by hearing the wonderful stories about him. I do remember that the few times I did see him, he was always smiling. May God Bless you all and give you the comfort, love and care you need through this. I love you guys so much. You all are my family : XOXO

“ My most heartfelt prayers with the girls and his wife. Losing your daddy is a hard thing. Kenny-Bo was the most awesome, loving, kind hearted person i've ever known. there literally are not enough kind words to describe him!!! I grew up at his house with his kids and he treated me like one of his own. I love him dearly and cant believe he's gone, but so is his pain and suffering. May God give you all peace and comfort as you go on without him. Margaret

“ I miss you dad. I will miss the times we just joked around outside while grilling. I had so much fun every time we came over to visit you. The most memorable time is when you took me fishing for the first time in Texas. I will never forget that day. It was a day I got to share stories with my second dad. I will miss you so much.

“ I am thankful for all the love and support Kenneth gave to my family and I. I am grateful for his sense of humor and mischevious nature.
I will dearly miss you enlightening me on my ignorance of football. I will miss us making furniture together and scheming up new ideas!! I will miss us teaming up to pick on Momma! I will miss you and Tom doing your male-bonding thing and zoning out in front of the TV together. I love you Kenneth. No one will ever replace you Big Daddy!
