

Kenneth "Kenny" Kolojaco

September 14, 1953 - December 12, 2025

Kenneth Ray Kolojaco, 72, of Friendswood, TX, passed away peacefully on December 12, 2025, surrounded by his loving family. Kenny was born September 14, 1953, in Richmond, TX, to Eddie Sr. and Frances Kolojaco. Kenny was a man defined by his genuine dedication to his family, his strong work ethic and knowledge, and his infectious laugh.

Kenny graduated from Lamar Consolidated High School and earned an associate's degree at Wharton County Jr. College before starting his career as an electrician, a trade he loved for over 40 years. Kenny found joy in fishing trips with family and friends, hunting at the deer lease, woodworking, playing golf and riding motorcycles with his friends.

He is survived by his daughter Kyra Scopel and her husband Anthony along with grandchildren Kenna, Keaton and Kali Thomas and Savannah Scopel; partner Cheryl Sauls and her children Ashley Andreano and her children Olivia and Jack, Andy and Austin Sauls; brother Eddie Kolojaco and wife Jennifer. He was preceded in death by his parents and wife of 33 years, Carol Kolojaco.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Davis Greenlawn on December 20, 2025, at 10 AM. Visitation will take place on December 19, 2025 from 5-7 PM at Davis Greenlawn. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation of America, a cause dear to Kenny due to his recent diagnosis. He will be deeply missed and forever remembered as our hero and guiding light.

“ Kenny was an absolute light in our lives, and we will be forever grateful for the love he shared with us. His kindness, humor, quiet wisdom and JOY shaped all of us for the better. He became a part of our family 15 years ago and the impact he had on us will never be forgotten. His welcoming attitude and radical acceptance was nothing short of Christ Like. Thank you for everything, Kenny! Ashley & the Sauls Fam
