“ *To the Kohleffel Family:
You and your family have my deepest, most sincere heart felt sympathy. I know at times like this words seem to mean the least or possibly the most. Knowing him As I did, I definitely know he was loved by all who encountered him.....especially his wife, children, children's spouse's and grandchildren. Your LOVE for each other will always be just as strong as ever. Your family will continue to remember and cherish his enormous spirit and soul till the end of time. There will always be those grand times when you see, hear. or think certain things about him. Only his body has been taken away, not his spirit, soul nor the enormous LOVE and closeness your family had and developed through him. He is, and always will be with you. Let his spirit and soul live forever.....he made many folks happy while he was here.....let that same happiness carry your family through this all today, and days to come by just knowing he had lived a loving life and was LOVED so much. For the Heavens just got them a real gem of a man. May my hugs and most sincerest sentiments and feelings be bestowed upon you all through this troubling time. May the higher powers from up above be with and remain with you all and grant a healing solemn peace.*

“ Bunker just told me the horrible news! Since we moved to Houston last summer, I don't keep up that well with Needville. I am heartbroken for you all. I love so many of you! Becky inspired Bunker in so many ways, when others didn't quite understand him. Karen was the absolute best room mother I ever had, while sharing her precious Anissa with me. “ Dear Kohleffel Family

It's been 14 years since we moved from Needville, but we remember Kerry's smile and friendly personality and when we looked at his picture there it was. He hadn't changed a bit other than some gray hair. It was always great to do business with him whether it be through the store or Little League Baseball. We comment often to our friends and neighbors that the Wylie Western Auto cannot compare to the service the Kohleffel's offered! Kerry will be fondly remembered & we will look forward to seeing him in heaven. Karen, I am glad Aron and Randy have maintained their friendship. You and your family have been a blessing. May the Lord comfort and strengthen you all.

“ In this time of grief and loss, I pray that your faith and strong family ties will assist in sustaining each of you. At this time, words alone can do little to address your pain, but the outpouring of support by our community speaks volumes to the life of Kerry. At times such as this, I always recall a quote I heard many years back and I'll share it with you. “ Becky & Family...

From the moment we heard your sad news, our hearts too were deeply saddened. We reflected on chatting with you both just a few weeks ago at McAlisters. We truly stopped and reflected on how every day is a precious gift - not to be taken for granted.

We also reflected on Kerry... Thoughts of the contagious smile that Kerry always had, his uplifting spirit and giving ways. I immediately thought of the scripture - "Well done, good and faithful servant." And, at this time, I also think of 2 Timothy 4:7 - "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." Kerry is truly one to be remembered as an example for others to follow.

You and your family are in are prayers.

“ A loss such as Kerry's is hard to understand, but what is even harder is to know a person such as he, that had such a positive outlook on life, and was taken away so suddenly. He always greeted me with a " How's it going?" and a solid handshake. I will miss him terribly. God Bless you Dear Friend.

“ I am so sorry for your lose! Loosing someone close is never easy. I take comfort in what Gods promise are. He will never give you more than you can take. Absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Wanda Martinez is my Mom and we lost my Dad in Nov. of this year, it takes time but God is in control. Please let him be. We love yall very much!!

Dad and I found out Sunday about Mr. Kerry's passing. I'm so sorry to hear this. I will always remember going into the shop with my mom or dad and getting to visit with all "the guys."
