L. O. Ken Stephenson

April 28, 1949 – January 29, 2010

A good man of strong convictions passed away suddenly on January 29, 2010. He has left behind to honor his memory his wife, Regina; daughters, Catherine Page and Kenna Stephenson; son-in-law, Thomas Page; five grandchildren, Courtney and Brayden Guenther, Emily, Abigail, and Jacob Page; his loving animal companions Colonel McMurphy and Roscoe; as well as extended family members and dear friends.

Married for over forty years, all who knew him understood that his life centered around home and family. He loved best to spend a quiet evening at home with Regina – unwinding from the business of the day together. He was fiercely proud of his children and was willing to tell all who would listen of their accomplishments. Never one to back down in any situation, he would dispense his advice or opinion with absolute honesty, though sometimes abrasive he was always sincere.

For those of us who loved him, he was our protector, our patriarch, the leader of the family – and a friend who would be there to help, or to lend a tool, or show the right path to take. The empty space in our lives is huge, but the difference he made continues.

As was his wish, God took him quickly. So as the scene fades away at the end of this wonderful man's life, we take comfort in knowing HE DIED WITH HIS BOOTS ON.

For those wishing, memorials in Ken's name may be made to the Salvation Army.

A memorial service will be held at 2:00 P.M., Thursday, February 4, 2010 at Davis-Greenlawn Funeral Chapel, 3900 B.F. Terry Blvd., Rosenberg, Texas.

“ Regina & Family,

I worked with Ken at O&M Manufacturing. Ken will always be a dear friend. To this day, I continue to smile when remembering some of his cute phrases and his sweet lil' smirk he made when he was up to something no-good and funny. I will miss Ken and will hold dear to my heart my knowing him and his considering me a friend. May God bless you and your family in this grieving period and may He provide you the presence your hearts need in this wonderful man's absence. Love to you Ken and all of your family that you spoke so proudly of, Tim Palombo
