“ Our deepest sympathy to the family. I just came across the obituary as I was searching for someone else. My mom Rita Dobrava and Larry were first cousins, but didn't get to see each other in a very long time. I am so glad I got to visit with Larry at Adelle Zapalac's funeral in Schulenburg. Her daughter, Patricia Zapalac Balcar, was a very good friend of mine. Mom has always talked fondly of Larry remembering their times together when younger. I remember going with my mom as a child to visit Aunt Hilda in Rosenberg. May your precious memories help bring you strength and comfort in the days ahead.

“ Simply put...one of the nicest men I have had the pleasure to visit with. A truly good man who always asked how my mother was doing and how others we both knew were getting along.

“ Dear Karen, Brian, Kevin and Michelle, Gilda and I were so saddened to hear of Larry's passing. Way back in the 90's, I had tickets to a Houston Oilers game and Larry and Brian came with Gilda and I to the game. We had a wonderful time, and we have thought of it fondly many times since. Larry was a true gentleman and just a kind and wonderful man. We can't imagine how much he will be missed and we grieve to think of how deeply this loss must be impacting all of you. Please know that we are thinking of all of you today, and always, and that we wish for your pain to lessen over time, although the loss will always be with you. I would like to also say, as I told Karen and Larry at Brian and Jeannie's wedding, that your children are a clear reflection on both you and Larry, and you raised truly good and special people. You should be proud of that.

“ It's with deep sympathy and sadness that we say goodbye to Mr. Larry. He was a kind soul, always greeting you with a big smile, a warm handshake, a loving hug, or a funny joke that I'm sure he'd been delivering all week. We will miss him deeply and send our heartfelt regards to Karen, Michele, Brian, and Kevin, as well as their spouses and amazing grand kids.

See you soon, Larry.
