“ Laurie was such a sweet and kind lady. We played volleyball together in high school, and I had the privilege to teach her son Mitchell in elementary school. Her sweet smile always made your day a better day. Sending prayers and hugs to her family.

It has been years since the last Boecker reunion I attended; and I honestly do not recall Laurie. However, from the cousins related as Lydia Boecker's son Hugo's son, daughter; I wish my condolences to Aline, and to Laurie's close family. "Some fine morning, I'll fly away." Fly away, Blue Jay.
