“ You brought us together for a reason. I loved him with all my heart. My time is done. I hope you can bring him the person that will truly make him happy. I know you want him to have peace and love. I do too. He’s back in your hands to give him the person he needs for this time. I gave my all but I wasn’t the right one. Guide him now to find his way to a love that he can honor. I wish I could have met you and you could have seen him in the beginning when he loved his family, even grand children. But he has chosen a new journey and I hope you are once again there to help and guide him to another love. I’ll see you in heaven one day and thank you for the time that was given to me.

“ Dear Karen and girls,
I am sorry for your loss. I have been praying for your mom daily. I know this is a difficult time and will continue to pray for you at this time. I know that when my mom died I counted on a lot of prayers. It helped to ease some of the pain. I think of the good memories I have of my mom and that is what can get you through too. My thoughts and prayers are with your entire family at this time.

Sincerely,

“ Hi Karen, remember when you used to ride your mom's bus sometimes? She would sometimes park under my shade tree on FM 2218? Remember Dean, blind and in a wheelchair? I am Dean's mom. Oh how much he and I and the whole family loved your mom. I learned of her services after they were overgrown I am praying for you, this will be so hard. Oh what a blessing she was to so many of us. “ Dear Billy, Karyn and Sandy,
Thankyou for sharing your mother with me. I am very glad to have known her and called her friend. She was always quick witted and ready to laugh. Her ability to remain selfless and always hopeful is a major trait of hers to be admired. She was full of love for her children and grandchildren. She strove to concentrate on that and I believe that kept her strong. I so enjoyed all the conversations that I shared with her. I will remember her and think upon her fondly for the rest of my days. Again, Thank you for the priveledge. Much Love, Claire

“ Dear Karen, Sandy and Billy,
I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. She has a very special place in my heart. She was so kind to my parents and family. I can't thank her enough for the care she gave to my mom and dad. I can picture them playing dominoes now. We were always sharing pictures of our grandkids.

I will miss her,
Paula
