“ My sincere sympathy to the family. LaWanna was a beautiful person who was truly loved by many. I met LaWanna 15 years ago when I started at Lakeview and she became a dear friend. She was full of kindness and would help anyone any way she could. I will truly miss her and Lakeview will never be the same without her smiling face. May God bless her family and loved ones. She will forever be looking down on us.

“ I wish to offer my Deepest Sympathy to you the family, loosing a loved one in death no matter the circumstances is a difficult thing, knowing that others care even total strangers who reach out after having been touched by our loss helps us as a people to unite and may offer, If only momentarily, comfort. May God be with you.
