“ Heart hugs to all the family. Although gone to a better home, he will always be here with us - in our memories, our thoughts, our hearts. Just a memory away. You will see him in others by a gesture or word that he used. Cherish those things.
God Bless!

“ My heart breaks for all of you. I have so many wonderful memories of Larry from the Lamar Consolidated high school reunions. I can't imagine those without him. He was so kind, loving and faithful. Every time I was around him, I wanted to be a better person. I know he's in heaven sitting next to Waldine Richter Winter my mother chatting up a storm. She probably isn't letting him get a word in. I love all of you very much. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
