“ My prayers and condolences are extended to all of Mrs. Capak's family. I got to know her and Mr. Capak when I worked at the bank in Yorktown when they first moved here many years ago. What a sweet and loving couple! I have some of their ceramic eggs which they loved to make. I also remember Mrs. Capak making her delicious cinnamon hard candy at Christmas, and sharing it with us at the bank. My memories of her are treasured forever! I pray that all the family shares their memories often and realizes that God has gained our angel He shared with us on earth. May God bless each of you, and may He guide and guard you in the days ahead as you find comfort in His care. Mr. and Mrs. Capak were such caring and kind couple.....cherish forever your memories of their love, kindness, and example.

With my prayers and my sympathy, Shirley Moczygemba
