“ Grandma loved to garden. She loved her roses (especially yellow roses) and Lily flowers. Grandma was very religious . Love of God and family was very important to her. She made quilts for her grandchildren and great grandchildren. A crochet lace dining tablecloth that she made is one of many precious gifts she gave to me. She was the hardest home and garden caretaker I know. I loved her homemade bread and jellies she canned. She sewed dresses for her grand daughters and barbie clothes. Grandma passed before I had the chance to let her know that another great grand daughter was coming. My daughter is expecting a gift from god and her name will be Liliana. My love for her was unconditional .She offered her hugs and shoulders for me to cry or laugh on when I needed it. I will miss her as many others will too. I am so blessed to have known her and was proud to say I am your eldest Granddaughter, Debra Pieper Leslie. Rest in peace, you are surrounded by his glory and reuniting with loved ones who have gone before you. Grandma I can only imagine.
