“ Lisa,

It feels like a long time but it's only a blink of an eye compared to when we will meet again and spend eternity! Katy is doing well... we miss you and talk about you often but we both just say your on vacation touring Europe because we know we will see you again. It keeps us going, that and our Faith and Hope in Jesus! I love you!

“ I just stumbled upon this tonight because I had been thinking about my old neighbor and her daughter and wondering how they were doing. I am so sorry to hear about Lisa's death. My heart goes out to her whole entire family.

Lisa had a wonderful smile and was forever looking toward the positive.

“ I stubbled upon this accidentally. I am shocked and saddened by the news of Lisa's passing. I lived across the street from the Mayo family for a couple of years on Overland and really looked up to Lisa. She was smart, funny, pretty, and the list goes on. My heart goes out to the Mayo family.

My deepest sympathies,

“ Dear Lisa,
May you rest in peace. I haven't seen you nor your family for years and years, but I still remember your gorgeous smile and constantly bright face that you had shared with all of us at Stafford High School.
God bless you friend,

“ I am so sorry to read about the loss of your dear loved one. We all yearn to see our loved ones again. Very soon this will be a reality according to Jesus' promise at John chapter 5:28 and 29- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

“ Katy,
I just wanted you to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I still remember how much I enjoyed having you in my fifth grade class. I remember how much you spoke of your mom and how much you loved her. She was a beautiful woman who loved you very much. I pray that you will find the strength to move forward in your life and show everyone what a wonderful young lady you are.

“ Dear Jeff and Family,

Although I am trying with the utmost effort to imagine your grief, I know that it is ten-fold more. I also know that I have no words of comfort that could possibly overcome it. I can only remind you of the many family and friends that grieve with you, even those like myself who regret never meeting Lisa. Know that so many are praying for the comfort and peace that only God can give, that Lisa is in paradise. And I look forward to when I get to meet her.

Most Respectfully,

“ Deb & Jeffery,

First I must express how saddened I was to hear of the loss of your Daughter. I can not imagine the grief you must be feeling. I have so many fond memories of you both and it also makes me sad that we have “lost touch” through the years. Jeffery, your family meant so much to me growing up and I share the memories I have of them with my daughter, Jacqueline, as she did not have the pleasure of knowing the Mayo’s personally, but she does know you though the memories I share. I have many fond memories of friends and family but they will never ever be forgotten.

Keep those memories you have of your beautiful Lisa Joy close and share them often.

Warmly, Sharon, Kenton and Jacqueline Pratt Gross

“ Lisa~

You were such a beautiful woman and had so much to offer the world. I remember growing up as your sisters best friend and always looking up to you- even though I was only a year younger. My favorite memory is of me and you walking around a few months ago...sharing the ear piece to your I-pod "jamin' out", walking my dog. I will never forget that day. I love you and will miss you deeply.

“ Jeff and family,
My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Lisa was a beautiful person who obviously loved her family. She was taken way too early, but you can be assured that she is no longer in pain, she is an angel at peace.
