“ To Loraine's family, I worked for Gary Koeppen state farm insurance for years, and had Ms. Stone's insurance. She was a joy to visit with when she came to make her payments. I know she quit driving years ago, so it has been a long time since I had seen her. May God enjoy her company now. God Bless her family.

“ To Loraine's family: I am a Lamar High classmate of Loraine's. It is a very sad thing to lose one we feel like we've known all our lives, even though we've had only occasional contact for several decades. I send my deepest sympathy to each of you in her family. Sincerely, Roxie Nelson Westbrook

“ Candy & Family, Im sorry the loss of your mother. Loraine is a sweet person. Candy's mom and my mother used to have a good chat @ HSDC where Candy & I attended long time ago. My prayer goes for Candy & Family. Loraine is up in beautiful gate of Heaven where Angels are taking care of her. God bless you all! Hugs!

“ Dear Candy, I was so sorry to hear about your MOM she was such a lovely woman. She showed Frank and I such a great time when we visited her and grandma in Houston. Two lovely and giving people. We also shared you and your friends graduation together. My prayers go out to you, your sister and family. Love, Rose Marie Monahan

“ Lorraine was my 2nd "Mom" when I was with Candy in late 80's and early 90's. Lorraine warmly welcomed me into her home and family. I loved her for that. I haven't see Lorraine for over 10 years but she always been in my thoughts and in my heart. I will miss Lorraine very much. God bless the family. HUGS! Laurie
