

Lorene Engel

July 12, 1924 - October 17, 2023

Lorene Melinda Engel, 99, of Beasley, Texas passed away in Needville, Texas on October 17, 2023. She was born on July 12, 1924, in Beasley, Texas, to Herman and Clara Richter.

She was a wonderful homemaker, farm wife and caring loving mother and grandmother. She loved her pets and cooking. Lorene and her husband Loyd enjoyed traveling across the U.S. and Canada with family and neighbors. Lorene was a member of the First Baptist Church of Rosenberg, where she was quite active and a member of the Golden Heirs choir group.

She is survived by her sister, Ella Mae Schmidt, son, Alan Engel and wife Dena, grandson John Anderson and wife Sheena, great granddaughters Bailey Anderson and Amy Anderson, and great grandson Warren Anderson, as well as numerous family and friends.

Lorene is preceded in death by her husband Loyd Engel who she was married to for 76 years, her parents, Herman and Clara Richter, sisters Gladys Henrichson and Elfrieda Richter, and brothers Larry Richter and Arnold Richter.

“ I will always remember Aunt Lorene as a loving, attentive and gracious lady. She cheerfully hosted large Engel family gatherings for Thanksgiving and Christmas for many years, never forgetting to include the Walker sisters as well just as our grandmother Ruth Walker Engel had always done. And I will never forget my overnight stays with her and Uncle Loyd as a little girl. As hard as she worked around her home, her yard and her garden, she always made time to stop and play games with me which made me feel so special. I smile with tears in my eyes thinking of the reunion in heaven she is now enjoying.
