“ My dear laughing, smiling, crazy, & sometimes ditzy friend! I loved you....my life will never be the same without you. We have cried, prayed together & boy have we texted. God knew that we would need each other all those years ago & boy we sure did. I will never go to Sonic without thinking about you! I will always tell people that your children were your world. You were a great mom. I promised you Tuesday before I left you that Marisa, Racy & Symantha would know what you did for me, you are my one true friend. To the Rios family & Doug thank you so much for letting me be with Lori in her last hours, words can not express my gratitude. I love you all & Lori we will be together soon.
