

Louise Faltisek

August 19, 1913 - January 2, 2013

On August 19, 1913, Louise Wasicek Faltisek was born to Frances Sklar Wasicek and Joseph Wasicek of Wallis, Texas. Louise had four brothers and three sisters. John and Rosalie Wasicek, William Bill and Emma Wasicek, Richard Dick and Dora Wasicek, Charlie and Gertrude Smith Wasicek, Mary Wasicek Kopecky and Henry Kopecky, Bessie Wasicek Holub and Frank Holub, and Frances Wasicek Kubala and Jerry Kubala. All of her brother and sisters and a grandchild, Kevin Wayne Faltisek have preceded her in death.

On November 25, 1935 she married Edward Peter Faltisek, the love of her life. Louise and Ed both grow up in Wallis. Ed was playing trombone in the Jimmeny and the Crickets Band for a masquerade dance in Wallis, he decided he would marry the lady that dressed as a pirate and dancing with all the ladies, Louise. Ed and Louise have five children: John Edward and Sharon Zalman Faltisek, Jimmy JW Faltisek and Joyce Mitchell, Cecele Faltisek Kilgore and Tommy Kilgore, Jo Ann Faltisek Dittert and Robert Bob Dittert, Edward Jerry EJ and Debra Thomson Faltisek. Grandchildren: John Edward and Ginger Faltisek, Jill Faltisek Herrmann and Perry Herrmann, Veronica Dittert and Michael Talley, Robert and Dee Koelher Dittert, Kelea Kilgore Newhouse and Richard Newhouse, Charlea Kilgore, Ashley Faltisek. Great grandchildren: John Edward JAY Faltisek, Marlea Kilgore, and Kaya Newhouse.

Louise as child loved cooking but most of all driving the tractor, helping her dad. When her sisters would get together to hand quilt, Louise always made lunch as her stitches were too long. Louise loved cooking, gardening, canning, farming but most of all the free time to go fishing. Ed and Louise would load up the kids, fishing poles and head for the Colorado River or Matagorda to have a cookout and fish. What great fun we had. Her grandchildren loved her cheese rolls with homemade chicken noodle soup, which we had every Christmas. Louise had a Nursery in Wallis, her love of plants, she could grow anything. Their garden was full, Strawberries, Okra, Tomatoes, Corn, Cucumbers, Cantaloupe, Watermelons, anything you can think of, they grow it and they shared with everyone. You just had stop by and you were welcome, she would just throw a little more into the pot, You never left her table hungry.

Louise went home to be with our Heavenly Father and her brothers and sisters on January 2, 2013. She will always be in our memory and our hearts. Her final wish for all of us is that is to love, respect and enjoy our families and friends. That we get together often play Cards and Dominoes and definitely go FISHING.

“ My sympathy to your family in your loss. I always thought a lot of her, having known her when I was a kid back in Hungerford. Then also. we were next door neighbors to Uncle Charlie, her brother, on Lawrence St. She always had a smile.

“ We will miss your smiling face. Paul was just remembering going to the farm in Needville and working with you picking cotton. He still tells the story about you making him round up the bull! We will remember our fun times at Matagorda and your storytelling and playing cards!! You will always be in our thoughts and prayers! We love you, Aunt Louise!
