

Loyd Engel

August 22, 1925 - October 2, 2023

Loyd Herman Engel, 98, of Beasley, Texas passed away in Sugar Land, Texas on October 2, 2023.

He was a life-long farmer growing cotton, corn, and grain sorghum. He enjoyed fishing, playing golf, and tending to his herd of cattle. He was very good at fabricating and building the things needed on the farm. Loyd and his wife Lorene enjoyed traveling across the U.S. and Canada with family and neighbors.

Loyd was a member of the First Baptist Church of Rosenberg, along with being a member of the Golden Heirs choir group, and board member of Farm Bureau of Texas.

He is survived by his wife of 76 years, Lorene Engel, his son Alan Engel and wife Dena, his sister Elaine Arnold, grandson John Anderson and wife Sheena, great - grandchildren Bailey, Warren, and Amy Anderson, as well as numerous family and friends.

Loyd is preceded in death by his mother Ruth Engel, father Herman Engel, sister Merle Krause, and brother-in-laws Garrett Krause, and Louis Arnold. The family would like to thank the staff at Greatwood Assisted Living of Sugarland for their help and kindness to Dad. It was greatly appreciated.

Visitation is scheduled for 9:00 a.m. Monday October 9, 2023, followed by the funeral service at 10:00 a.m. in the Chapel of Davis-Greenlawn Funeral Home in Rosenberg, Texas

“ What a special cousin Loyd was to our dad, Floyd! They drove motorized bikes in their youth, played 42 together as adults, worshipped together at First Baptist Rosenberg, and also shared the adventures of marriage and children. We are grateful for the memories they got to create. We are praying for your whole family as you miss having him here. What a reunion he must be having in Heaven now! With love, Ken, Heidi, Summer and Forest
