“ To know this beautiful person is whom you chose to spend a life with - I can only imagine the visions, goals and dreams that were shared

There will be moments when a smile, a giggle, or a tear show up at odd times - and these will be the love she continues to share

It is for those dreams not yet attained that I feel your pain and wish you strength

“ Todd, It has been stated that the definition of love is One soul living in two bodies. This certainly was the case with you and Nutzy. We will grieve with you as you mourn the loss of you wonderful bride. At the same time we will be thankful that Nutzy has been healed. You will remain in our prayers.

Your loving Father,
Rev. Albert Harvey

“ *Loretta,
I didn't know Luann, but hearing you & Fred always speak so highly of Luann & Pam when we were all working together at the old Sugar Land Telephone - I know that you raised 2 wonderful girls... Charles & I are so sorry for your loss. I know losing a child has to be the worst thing in this world to happen to a parent, no matter at what age. Know that Luann is with God now, & she is feeling "No more pain, no more sorrow, the old things have passed away". You are in our prayers.*

“ Todd,
We are so very sorry for your loss. We know words cannot express how you are feeling. What we want to say is best said in the following quote:

"I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love. Leo Buscaglia"
