“:Lou was a big brother to our family. When he lived in San Marcos we were fortunate to be living there and he would visit our family as often as he could. We spent many wonderful fun filled days and evenings with him. He would join us when we would go camping at Canyon Lake/Dam and even went along for a long trip to El Paso. He was a brave man because there were 6 kids under the age of 13 in that car! One of my best memories of having him in my/our lives. Lou will be greatly missed by the Edwin and Mary Novak family. Love forever, Sharon Novak and sbilings.

“ Lou was a special kind of guy. He could be gruff and hard-nosed. He was also a friend to almost everyone he knew. He was also not afraid to speak his mind, especially when it came to highway construction. He was a fountain of knowledge in that department and was always willing to help others learn the skills he had honed over the years. We worked together on a section of the Grand Parkway in Fort Bend County. I could always count on him for support, guidance, and advice. And he was always willing to just sit and talk if that's what you needed.

I pray that God will grant the peace and comfort that only He can give to Lou's family.
