“ My Aunt Honey Madalyn Wallace Zambon 84, has gone to be with our Father in Heaven...Honey I love & miss you so much...You have been her for all my moments in life....Marriages, birth of my children & divorce. We have lived, loved & laughed so much in our past years.. You taught me to move on when things in life get tough. I already want to call you for that recipe you taught me to make, but I didn't write down. You have given me the best advice in divorce & happiness!! You remind me of my Nannie, your sister who died way before her time!!!! I cherish every moment I had with you and am thankful you kept our families together! I LOVE you & miss you dearly! I'm calling you now! And know you are listening to me like you always have!!! God grant you peace..Peace be with you always. I Love you!!! My HONEY!!!

“ *E.J Zambon, and family,
I cannot express in words the great memories I have of Madalyn and the love she had for Ruth and I. From always wanting to me to come by the house when she and Ed lived off Bering and have a toddy, to our wedding day. My love goes out to the family and my mentor and valued friend Edward.
Love ,
Byron and Ruth Cowart.*
