“ Marcella was the cutest little lady I've ever met. So sharp and so sweet. I know she got tired of living here when she was so sick; so I rejoice with the family that she is now in her forever home -- young, healthy, vibrant and waiting for us! We think of you with love, Marcella!

“ Marcella, you have been my special mother- in-law. We shared love for each other, guided by your wonderful baby girl who became my baby and loving wife. We had a precious bond that holds us even now. Bless all of our family especially Jeanenne and Rich and all of the precious grandchildren and great-grandchildren who shre your spirit. You will be missed, but I hope we can always feel your presence in out hearts and menories.
