“ Thank you, Marco, for providing a place for friends to gather, and take a break from a busy life, by enjoying a game of golf. It has proven a bright spot in my life's journey. May you now rest in peace with those that have gone before you.

“ To my dear father in law, Mino. Thank you for everything and all you've done for me, Robert, Lance and Marcus. You taught Robert so many great lessons in life: being a good husband, father, friend and mostly being a hard worker. These lessons have been passed on to Lance, Marcus and will for our next generation. I know you and Mina are rejoicing and catching up on so many moments. I'm grateful to have been part of your life and thank you for being a part of mine. With love, Christine 🕊️

“ To the Lopez Family, Marcos will be with us all in our hearts and memories. He was not one you would ever forget. In our early years of making haunted houses, he told me once there must be something wrong with me because I came up with some crazy things to do to scare everyone, while the whole time he was laughing and smiling while he said it. I told him I was a horror fan after that he never picked on me again. We had so much fun trying to scare him. He is at Doris's side again and very happy. Our loving prayers and thoughts are with you all. Carlos and Betty Lerma
