“Maggie,
I do not have the words to say about the loss of your mother. Please know you and your family are in my prayers. Mom sends her condolences as well.

“At my bridal shower, my friend and bridesmaid Susan had been speaking with Aunt Margaret, and asked me later, "Who is that sweet lady?" I was happy to tell her that she was my aunt. I always liked hanging around the table when my mother and aunts would sit and talk. Aunt Margaret could always tell a funny story, like the time at Madisonville when she thought a mouse was touching her foot at night while everyone was supposed to be asleep and how thankful she was when she realized it was a kitten Kelley had brought with her and not a mouse playing with her toes. Love you, Aunt Margaret!
