“ Margaret, you were always cheerful, positive and helpful. For many years you guided me through the byzantine pathways of the Shell bureaucracy. Talking to you was always a delight, and you brightened the days of everyone you came in contact with. You will be sorely missed, but your memory is a warm part of my Shell experience.

Go with God, as I know you have.

I pray your family will find comfort in this time of loss.

“ I just today read about Margaret's passing, we had some great times in Sealy, and surrounding areas, going to different dances. she was there for me when my mother passed away, always a giving person. sadly, as most young friends do, we lost touch. glad that she had a loving husband and great career. May God give peace to all her family.

“ To Margaret's family,
Margaret and I were early childhood friends in East Bernard. Even then she was caring and loving. Her family was a well respected part of our small town. Loss is hard but know that Margaret is holding you in her loving arms right now. Sadly I missed the funeral. Take care.

“ As newcomers to the Richmond area, we met Kirby and Margaret six months ago. Our lives have been enriched by their friendship. We are so sad that the four of us will have no more opportunities to go out to dinner together or to have a friendly visit about recent events. We are glad to have enjoyed Margaret's wonderful, friendly personality and hope that we can continue to be good neighbors to Kirby. We pray for God's peace to be with the family.

“ My condolences to the family, especially, Kirby for the loss of our dear & wonderful Margaret. My heart cries out for her , her family, dear friends and her baby Miki. Margaret was a beacon of light to all she came in contact with. I've been blessed that our Abba Father allowed our paths to cross. I will never forget her & she will always remain in my heart. I know she's walking those streets of gold & has reunited with all of her loved ones that are in heaven & were there to welcome her Home. The best part is that she was able to see Jesus face-to-face. What a joy that must have been. I love you Margaret. Your memory will always remain alive, and know I'll see you again someday soon. -Rose Lara

“ What a wonderful lady, friend, wife, grandmother, patient bridge partner. Margaret spread joy to all around her. If you were her friend, you were blessed. I remember when she and Kirby bought their travel trailer then the price of gasoline went sky high and she told me they decided not to travel. I said girl, just go, you never know what's gonna happen. She called me back and said they had a great trip. She loved her husband and her dog, her grandbabies and her friends. Kinda in that order! Lady, oh how you will be missed!
