“ I met Margie about 4 1/2 years ago, as she was my aunts realtor. Today I received the news of her passing and it really struck me. When I met her, I was not even 30 years old and had quite a few health issues but watching her as an older woman with such spark and flare made me often say, I hope I have half the energy she has when I reach her age.

She was a person who whenever I saw her or spoke with her, always gave to you good energy. You could be in any mood but when you left Margie, you were happy.

She will be missed and I wish her family and friends many blessings.

To her children: I lost my mother more than 7 years ago and I can say that you never forget so hold on to the good times and use them as your strength as your time will soon approach and if you are indeed your mothers child you will see her again.

“ What a wonderful woman Margie was. We had such fun times looking for our house. She and I looked at 48 houses and use to laugh at what kind of record we were breaking! She became an instant friend and she will be missed so very much. Our prayers go out to her daughter and family.

Goodbye Margie. God bless you. We know you will have the angels laughing every day.
