“ Dear Mom,

My heart is broken right now ,knowing that you will not be there when I visit the next time or that I can not be there with the family to celebrate your life, who could have imagined that a pandemic would hit and alter the way we celebrate the end of your beautiful life. I am not alone in this, there are many who would love to be presented but can not, you have touched so many lives by your unconditional love. Only God knows that number, each time I speak to someone whom you have touched, it just unfolds the love that transcended from you.

I was fortunate to have shared your last Christmas with you and the family. As I reflect on the meaning of Christmas,the celebration of the birth of Christ, I think of the endless prayers that you prayed for each and every one of you children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and your great-great grandchildren. We were fortunate to have you with us through four generations, your recent great-great grandson Jason was born early this year. We were blessed by your endless prayers. Through your endless faith, you taught us that without God nothing is possible and through him we shall not want. People often ask how you and dad manage to raise all of us. The only answer is that we had God's protection over us through your endless faith.

I am so sad, and heartbroken knowing that I and many countless family and friends can not be there physically,but I know that God has a plan and purpose for what he does,even though it may not be revealed at the moment. Through my sorrow and grief,comfort came to me when God revealed to me that you will be buried during the holy week, the week leading to Jesus resurrection. For God to call you home during the holiest of days is a true blessing.I reflected on Jesus new commandment that we should love one another,which you a follower practiced daily.

In the commandment Jesus told the disciples: "Love one another; as I have loved you". ... John 15:12: This is my commandment, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you. John 15:17: These things I command you, that ye may love one another.

Mom, the one and most powerful lesson that you have taught me and my brothers and sisters was to love one another unconditionally.

Mom you truly loved unconditionally and were blessed beyond all measure, because you Trusted God. My brothers, sisters and I were blessed to have you as our mother. Thank you God for giving us a loving mother, who showed us your power.

As we all go through this difficult time of social distance ,remember that love and faith in Jesus is all we need “ Today is a time to say farewell from afar. Your great granddaughter Naraica Liv Cocco has also turned 8 years old. Your daughter Maria Guadalupe (Greene) has given me the tremendous gift of love and kindness and faith in Jesus which is a direct reflection of you. I am thankful for the gift of life you have contributed to allow the miracle of being. Love you and I am saddened that we are not able to be there in person. I am glad that you passed away in a peaceful way surrounded by the admiration and caring of your loved ones. Your memory lives on in the lives you have cared for. RIP grandma 🥹

Love you!!!!❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️ from your great granddaughter Natalie Cocco

“ We would like to thank all who have sent prayers and have reached during this difficult time. This is so surreal that we can not be all be present to share the end of such a beautiful life.

We know where ever you are you are sharing in our grief and we want you to know that we love all of you and appreciate your kind compassion and empathy.

We our hearts will forever be connect
