“ Hilda and Richard,

Our most heart felt condolences to both of you. We can only image the pain that both of you are going through at this point in time. She left many memories and touched many people in her short life. As hard as it might be, both of you need to be strong for your grandson's sake. We will keep you in our prayers.

“ there is no way to express the loss we feel, and there is no way to express to Richard and Hilda how much our heart aches for them as they deal with this loss. Having share time with her at Bill's on Friday night now means just that much more. Our love is with you and everyone who shares this loss. Walter and Linda Davidson.
