“ I remember living across the street from Mark and his family. He was quiet but always smiling. I loved hanging out at their house playing dolls with Tammy (BooBoo), watching Tracy and Terry putting on make up, Mark & Paul always going to help their dad work the cows and Mrs Rychlik always cooking! The sweetest nicest family ever. Sorry we all lost touch over the years and Mark will truly be missed by all. Prayers for you all.

“ My family lived next to Mark's family in Sugar Land when we were kids, Mark always had a smile on his face and kindness for everyone. I'll never forget the many times hanging out with his family or our other friends in the neighborhood, boy we sure had alot of great times. Mark you will be missed.
Prayers for all of you.
