“ I grew up with Whiz on Highland Avenue and he was such a great friend. I learned a lot from him looking back, he got the last laugh and the first girl. I know his brothers always were joking with their baby brother but they were a strong family of 4 and Mark was a total class act.

“ Dear Sabra and Elizabeth, I was so sorry to hear about Mark. I know it has been difficult, but you have lots of wonderful memories to carry you through. He was a very lucky man to have such an incredible wife, and amazing daughter by his side. Please know you are both in my prayers. Hoping you have peace knowing he is whole again and that you will see him again one day. Big hugs!

“ Dear Sabra and Elizabeth,
We hope our sympathy and love will help to comfort you in this time of sorrow.
Mark was truly loved as a caring brother-in-law to us, and a devoted uncle to Brandon.
Mark was a warrior in his battle with cancer. We admired and respected him in his courageous effort to get better.
We will always remember Mark, and the loving memories we made together.
Please accept our care and compassion as we offer you our heartfelt condolences.

Love,

Larry, Sonya and Brandon Bagwell

“ Hank grew up with Mark in West Virginia. Hank remembers how Mark's mom had the responsibility of four boys to raise. And how none of them could get anything over on her. Hank smiles when remembering all the mischief he and Mark got into growing up. Mark was something else. Never a dull moment when he was around. Heaven has acquired quite a character.
