“ The world changed on June 18th with the loss of Martha Garcia, a loving mother and grandmother. More than likely, one of the best cooks on this planet. She struggled with her health in the last few years, but she was never alone in her fight. She raised her children, Patty, Sandra, Pete and Carmen to be hard-working and loving in the way they lived their lives and how they loved and treated one another. They showed in their daily lives the values that Martha had instilled in them since birth. Her job is done and her struggles are over. GOD is holding her now. Peace be with you, Martha, and may GOD bless Patty, Sandra, Pete and Carmen in your time of loss.
