“ I can't remember if Marvin got his Choo choo truck first or his RED Justin Ropers, but AG class gave him hell over them, lol! Being the down to earth man he's always been he gave a huge laugh and told everyone that they'd be getting them some too soon, and low and behold guys and girls were wearing every color imaginable! Trends come and go but Marvin was a true original and will be truly missed by all that was blessed to call him an amazing friend! RIP Tarzan, we're going to give heaven one hell of a laugh one day!

“ Marvin Is missed in our family as well. Sharon and I didn't know him as long as we would of liked. The time we did share was rewarding in every way. His heart was bigger and more giving than anyone I have met. he was the brother I always wanted to have but didn't. Always willing to roll up his sleeves and lend a hand. Marvin I will miss the reminiscing and the conversations and joking around.

The Lord gained a True Angel your loved by many and live through our hearts and memories

Forever in our hearts
