“ My sincere condolences to the Rivera & Acevedo family. I didn't have the pleasure of spending too much time with sis Mary who I knew as "sis Vita". I do remember when she was able to get around she was a faithful church attendee. Even more when after being a widow for many years she remarried a member of our church, bro Jesus Acevedo. They were so adorable together and I knew that they cared and loved each other by their actions. I know she is missed by both families and I pray God brings y'all comfort.

I'm trying to find my Dad's side of the family. Tia Vita was my father's sister and want to reconnect with them. Please contact me at 325-269-8812 with any info. I specifically trying to find my Dad's oldest daughter, my sister Cindy, from his 1st marriage. I only met Tia Vita a handful of times and am saddened I didn't get to know her more.
