Mary you were a beautiful soul inside and out. I loved your visits to my parents home and as I grew into an adult I enjoyed our visits. I've wondered so many times about you and how you were doing. You were the most beautiful woman I ever knew. Rest in Jesus

“ Mary is one of the wonderful widow ladies we loved to give a gift to every Christmas. She was so thankful. Every time she saw us, she would hug us and thank us. She will definitely be missed. Paul and Billie Kaye Tsika, Restoration Ranch

“ Mary was known as Sweet Mary to anyone who knew her. To me, she was my best friend, loyal, faithful, uplifting, always funny. Her love was unconditional. I loved visiting her in her home. It was a cozy place full of warmth. No matter what was going on in my life, my stress would fade away when around her. She loved the Lord and served him any way she could. Her favorite place to serve was in the church choir as long as she was able. I told her often that she needed to sing solos with her beautiful soprano voice. As long as she was able we texted back and forth in the evenings. Awww, my heart is broken . I love you, Sweet Mary, I am totally lost. No one has been such a friend as you. You blessed me. Thank you for being my friend.

Mary was my Aunt and her first husband was my Uncle Kenneth...my mother's brother...although the two divorced many years ago I always loved her very much. I have nothing but fond memories. Steve and Judy are my cousins... Joann

“ There are individuals in your life, that impact you, they provide you with a sense of being and they love you unconditionally. That was Mom (she was my 2nd Mom). Our loss, is the Heavens gain. Although she will be missed everyday, I will always have a spot in my heart. And very few are in that position. I appreciate the memories that we made together and God Speed to the Heavens. Love you, Mom!!!
