“ I am sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. When Jesus was here on earth, he performed many miracles. The most outstanding miracle was when he resurrected loved ones back to life, such as the widow who loss her only son in death. Jesus performed these miracles to demonstrate what he will do on a much larger scale in the near future on earth. At John chapter 5 verses 28 and 29, Jesus said, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

“ Dear Ann and Charles,

I always think of your mom when I pass by her home here in Warren. She was a kind person and I enjoyed helping Mary get her home ready to sell. All the best to you both.

Respectfully,
Troy Kahler

“ Dear Ann and Charles,
So sorry about the loss of your mom, my aunt and godmother. She had it really hard after your dad died but always tried her best. I picture her reunited with him, her parents, Uncle Cheet, Aunt Gilda, and Aunt Tillie.
Bless you in your time of grief.
Love,
your cousin, Adele
PS The obituary was full of errors my dad's name, Grandma's name, the spelling of Aunt Cam's name, etc., so when you are feeling better, contact me adeledc@gmail.com and I can help you with the family tree going back a few generations. Peace.

“ Dear Charlie and Ann,
I was very sorry to hear of your loss. Your Mom was a wonderful lady, and always made me feel welcome in your home. From her homemade white pizza to offering a place to stay, her generosity will always be a warm memory in my heart. May God help you through your sorrow and keep your memories of her happy.
Love and Peace,
Ted

“ Dear Charles and Ann,
I am very sorry to learn of your loss of your mother. I remember her as a very kind person, always brightly interested in people, and very pleasant to converse with. I have deeply regretted the years of lost contact but will always remember her with fondness. There were many great times back in the days. The long list of your mother's grandchildren and great grandchildren tells the story of a wonderful life, though now, sadly, a great loss to your families. May you be consoled by each other as you share many loving memories of your mother and God bless you.
With Deepest Sympathy,
John Hapgood

“ Dear Ann and Charlie,

My thoughts are with you. I hope you will be able to support each other during this difficult time by being together to celebrate a long life well lived. I have many memories of your mom's big old house in Warren, listening to music, being with friends and growing up in the 60's.

Peace,
