“ Mary Beth was a very special woman with a big heart! My siblings and I visited her home every year on Superbowl Sunday for many years, where we were welcomed with open arms, lots of food and love! She was also a witness in my wedding in 1994, which meant a great deal to me. She always made sure to visit when in Hallettsville and my parents were great friends with her and Ervin. She was a lady with many great qualities. She will be missed! Prayers for all of you 🙏
