“ Dear Miksch Family,
Rick and I are sending our prayers and blessings to each of you, When LeRoy died, a yellow butterfly appeared in your mother's yard. Every time, she tried to trim a tree, climb a ladder, the butterfly would flutter around her to keep her on the ground and out of harms way. I sent your mother the meaning of the butterfly: one of transformation and change, Butterflies show up during times of change, bringing a dance of joy, sweetly and joyfully as we wish, Your mother was a very special part of our lives, When she and LeRoy visited Upstate New York and our home, we were truly blessed and thrilled to visit with them. Fall in Cooperstown is remarkable. Every time, We see a yellow butterfly, we know that LeRoy is watching over us, Now, there will be two very special loved ones keeping watch, Remember all the joy and happiness that your mother brought and shared with others, Her infectious laugh and kind hugs will never be forgotten by me, We will be with you in spirit on Friday and send all our love at this time.
