“ Dear Claudia and family: I was so very saddened and shocked by the news that Max had passed. We were high school friends and in the last few years constant e-mail friends. He always made me laugh and shared stories of you and his pride and joy...his children and grandchildren regularly! I will miss him, as I know you will miss him so very much. Please know that you will be in my prayers and thoughts!! My sincere condolences, Sue Barnett Lincoln...Class of 1959

“ Max was a high school classmate. He played football he and was a very good athlete.

50 years later, I still remember him and how hard he played.

Rest in peace.

“ Claudia & Family... I work for Glen Byler as his Secretary. I am very sad to hear about your loss. I didn't get to see Max much after he retired from CenterPoint, but I did look forward to seeing him at Christmas time. With his BIG smile and some delicious bread. He never forgot about us, and we will never forget him! My prayers will be with you during this Holiday season!

“ Claudia and Catherine and family, words cannot express how deeply sorry we are that you have lost Max here on earth. However, the deep faith he exhibited gives us comfort that he is on the ultimate trail ride with Jesus as the trail boss. I cannot think of a kinder man than Max, or one with a sweeter smile. I will never forget the 'tour' he gave to Krystin's friends from several other countries on the Mercy ship when they wanted to visit a 'real' TExan. We asked and Max said, 'Bring 'em on out'. He was the highlight of their tour. I know this leaves an emptiness in his family, but I pray the wonderful memories you share are great comfort to you now. Let me know if we can do anything, Kathy “ Claudia.....I have lost a friend. Somehow, I know that we all wish that we could have played a bigger role in saving his life. But, it was not to be.

Thank you so much for allowing me to serve you and Max through the years. In the future, a new life awaits. And, Max cared enough for the love of his life, you, to make it have great possibilities. The best reward he would expect to get is that he would know that you lived it to the hilt!

I could tell by the way that he talked to me when you were not around, that he loved you very much. WD

“ I am so shocked to hear of Max's passing. I so looked forward to seeing him on trail rides & getting his email jokes. He was a sweet & funny man, truly one of a kind and will be missed terribly. I can hear his laughing and see his always smiling face. We will all miss this. To his family: I am so sorry for your loss. Knowing that he brought so much joy to everyone, I hope will be of a kind of embrace for you. He will be sadly missed.
