“ I will always remember Maxine as a sweet and sincere lady. She was always a joy to be around and was always helpful. I first met her as a young Trooper doing accident followup at the hospital. It was history after that. Maxine and Norris were one fine couple and will forever be remembered. My prayers to their beautiful family.

Sorry for your loss Terri. I met Maxine in 1977 when I started working at Polly Ryon in Personnel and she was in ER. She was a wonderful person and friend. She could be feisty too. I loved her. My prayers and thoughts are with you.
