“ My deepest sympathy for the family. May the promises in the Holy Scriptures brings comfort to you. The Bible promises one day soon, “God will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore” - Revelation chapter 21 verses 3,4. We yearn for the day to see our dear loved ones again. Jesus promises, “the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out” - John chapter 5 verses 28, 29.

“ I wish I could have been closer to her and her family. Back when I lived in Texas and My Grandmother Anita still had family reunions my strongest memory of then is playing with her kids. Melissa was always so nice to me and I can strongly state that she was a fantastic mother and caring person. I miss all of you and I hope you stay strong through this hard time. When my father died I was completely devastated and heart broken but it got better over time. I hope you will all heal over time and you are all in my prayers. I know my mother Dawn would like to hear from one of you her email is da wn6565@hotmail.com
