“ You and John have been on my life since i was 16 dating John's daughter, Mary. All three of you are gone, pasted unto the Glory of Heaven. The world is a little darker without your presence, but the world is much better having you here with us. Quite men and women doing what is right when no one was looking. It was wonderful to know and be related to you.

I will miss you greatly.

“ I was so sorry to hear of the passing of this very sweet man! I first met Melvin when I worked with him at the Highway Dept. many years ago through the Vocational Education Dept. at Lamar High School. He was always so nice, helpful & respectful & had a big welcoming smile every time I came to work. Those qualities remained with him always. Please know that my thoughts & prayers have been with him & his family at this very sad time. Remember, that welcoming smile will greet us all again one day in heaven!
