“ I will always remember how full of life Mickey was...He always had an amazing attitude, smile on his face and a contagious laugh. Always a doer and super proud father of his children & grandchildren. By the time I met him, his beautiful wife had passed away...Let there be no mistake that his love for her burned on! One-of-a-kind gentleman and an irreplaceable soul. The world has lost an incredible man, but God gained a beautiful angel. Sending my deepest condolences to the entire family.

“ I enjoyed you being in the choir and will always remember you calling me "teach". I know you are at peace and resting with your beautiful wife. I will miss hearing "duh!" when you were telling stories. Prayers for your family during this difficult time.
