“ My baby brother was one of those rare souls who loved deeply and quietly, without ever asking for anything in return. He was a devoted husband, a loving father, and a caring son. He carried these roles with so much pride and care. Family was everything to him, and he showed that love in a million small ways that will never be forgotten.

We were a very close family, and his presence filled every room with warmth, laughter, and comfort. He had a way of making people feel safe and understood, simply by being himself. As siblings, we shared a bond that can never be broken, even now. He will always be my baby brother, and I will always carry him with me.

His loss has left an ache in all of us that words can hardly touch. Every sibling, every family member feels the emptiness he left behind. We miss his voice, his smile, his guidance, and the love he so freely gave. Though our hearts are heavy with grief, we are forever grateful for the time we had with him and the memories we will hold onto for the rest of our lives.

He is loved beyond measure, missed beyond words, and will remain in our hearts always.
