“ It is with deepest regrets that I heard of the passing of Mike. I had the fortune of spending several adolescent years growing through the rituals of young men with Mike. We were friends after his return from the service before I went into the Navy. Mike was an honorable man, who respected people and was fun to be around. I rode motorcycles and ran with Mike in the 70s. My condolences to his family and friends.

“ Yvonne & Family: Our deepest sympathy in the passing of Mike. Your entire family are in our prayers. I would like to share this poem that has great meaning to me. Imagine by Michael Podesta: Imagine stepping onto a shore & finding it heaven. Imagine taking hold of hand & finding it God's hand. Imagine breathing new air & finding it celestial air. Imagine feeling invigorated & finding it immortality. Imagine passing from storm & tempest to an unknown calm. Imagine waking & finding it home. May our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Much Love - Pam & Terry
