

Mildred Mae Anderson

March 31, 1938 - March 30, 2020

Mildred Mae Anderson passed away March 30, 2020, at the age of 81. She was residing at The Hamptons Assisted Living in Meadows Place, Texas at the time of her passing. Mildred was born March 31, 1938 in Houston, Texas. She was the daughter (foster daughter) of Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Hastings of Sugar Land, Texas. She survived her husband, William Lanease Anderson (Andy) of 59 years of marriage. Mildred is survived by her eldest daughter Kimberly Anderson Sanduski and husband James Ray Sanduski, and granddaughter Andi Nicole Sanduski of Brentwood, Tennessee, her youngest daughter Deborah Anderson of Houston, Texas, her niece Kelly Deimling and her husband Greg Deimling, cousins Jackie Deimling Lewis and husband Trevor Lewis, and cousin Jake Deimling of Thompson Station, Tennessee. She is also survived by her sister, (foster sister) Romona Nance of Austin, Texas. Mildred was a teller for the Sugar Land State Bank. She was an active member of The First Baptist Church Sugar Land where she sang in the choir as a soloist and taught Sunday School. She later joined Sugar Land Baptist Church, (formerly Williams Trace Baptist Church). Mildred loved gardening which was evident by all those who enjoyed the beauty of her landscaping. Mildred was a loving wife and mother and enjoyed her family and friends. Due to the pandemic there will be a memorial service at a later date to be announced.

“ My sincere condolences to Mildred's family. I would see Mildred almost every day as I walked through our neighborhood. She was a pleasure to talk to. We would talk about the bygone days of Sugar Land. She would always remind me that her husband, Andy, thought me in Sunday School. Rest in peace Mildred. ”
