“ Mildred, I will surely miss you as you were my neighbor and friend. Even when I moved back home to Minnesota, I always thought of you and Milan. Mildred, memories of you will always be in my heart forever. Your kindness, thoughtfulness, and sharing made you a unique person, and I was a very lucky person to have known you.

“ I would like to express my deepest condolences for your loss. I remember Mr. & Mrs. Supak from when I was very young. Mr. Supak was my first boss when I worked for Baker's Shoe Store at Gulfgate Mall in Houston, TX. He was a great influence on my life. Even now, while working retail, I keep my cash register money just as he taught me over 30 yrs. ago. I will always remember them fondly. My parents Amon & Leona Money considered the Supak's friends for life. Rest In Peace.
