“ God of all consolation,
in your unending love and mercy for us,
you turn the darkness of death into the dawn of new life.
Show compassion to your people in sorrow.
Be our refuge and our strength to lift us
from the darkness of this grief
to peace and joy in your presence.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

“ Dear Sharon, Ronald and Frank and grandchildren:
I and the rest of the Teykl family in Austin send you our sympathy and prayers for your loss.
I will always remember fondly your mother and father/grandfather, Frank, particularly when Mildred told us the story of when my grandfather, John, oldest son of Josef T., and my mother, Billye, drove from Elgin in 1939 for Josef T. Teykl's funeral, Warmest regards, to you all.

I know it will not be easy on your loss. But just turn your tears and pain over to God, he will keep you close to his heart. I depend on God daily. She was loved by many.
