

Millie Brenner

February 25, 1949 - March 25, 2023

Millie Brenner was born in Rosenberg, Texas on February 25, 1949. She was the firstborn of nine children to Victor William Brenner Sr. and Ludmilla Vasek Brenner. She passed away peacefully during the early Saturday morning hours of March 25, 2023 at her home in East Bernard, Texas.

Millie was raised on the family farm in Rosenberg, Texas where she lived until 2006. She and her mother then came to live with her sister and her husband in East Bernard, Texas. Millie loved her family and friends and looked forward to their visits. If a birthday was coming up Millie knew and would remind you each day of your birth month. She could tell you the day of the week your birthday would be on. Many lights were hung in the living room for each holiday and Millie loved to see them twinkle. She loved the Price is Right and everything ABC 13 Houston. Much joy and light were brought into the all the lives of those that knew Millie. We will miss Millie in so many ways, but we know that she is with her family and loved ones once again.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her brother Victor William Brenner Jr., sister Dorothy Smith, uncle Tommy Vasek and her beloved aunt Betty Svec.

Millie is survived by her loving family:

“ She was one of the happiest people I've ever met. We always said hello when we came to visit and she would do the same. She had the best caregivers in Maryann and Bob, who understood her well. For me, it was the combination of those 3 people who showed me the light of love, compassion, and caring. May the Holy Family uplift this family during this time.
